GOA-LIS - 2018

SEMINAR THEME:

RESHAPING LIBRARIES WITH EMERGING
GLOBAL TECHNOLOGY AND TRENDS

Submission of Papers :-

Krishnadas Shama Goa State Central Library (KSGSCL) was opened as 'Publica Livraria' by Vice-Roy Dom Manuel de Portugal e Castro in 1832. It was a part of a military training institute known as 'Academia Militar' which was established in 1817. The main aim of the library was to enhance the education of the youth and to bring about culture development of the people. In 1836 the name of the library was changed to 'Bibliotheca Publica'. On February 15, 1897 the status of library was raised to that of National Library and renamed as 'Bibliotheca Nacional de Nova-Goa'. The library conducted many programmes to develop the library profession in State of Goa. To commemorate Librarian's day it is proposed to publish and release a volume of research papers having ISBN number on 9 August 2018 as per following details

Original papers on the above sub themes or related themes are invited from professionals. The paper should be based on research surveys, case studies or action plans etc. All papers will go through the process of review and accepted papers will be published in the seminar volume in the above mentioned programme. Authors should use Time new Roman with 12 point front in MS words format with double spacing and should not exceed 5000 words. Papers should be in English with abstract and key words with Chicago style citation. Correspondence will be made with the principal author and therefore the name, full address, e-mail, fax, phone number of the principal author should be clearly indicated. The full paper should be submitted latest by 30 June 2018 through e-mail at below mentioned address.
